News in brief

Groups to present information Saturday

Iowa Renewable Energy Association and Sensible Iowans will present information on alternative energy forms through an event that will include ice cream, movies and conversation, from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday at Hoover House, 102 W. Main St., West Branch.

Clips will be shown from "Why We Fight" by Eugene Jarecki, a documentary, and "Kilowatt Ours" a film by Jeff Barrie which discusses energy conservation and alternative energy sources.

Participants also will learn how to talk to the presidential candidates about alternative energy and sensible federal budget priorities.

The event is free and open to the public. Free Ben & Jerry's ice cream will be provided.
